Balloted In Equal Blocks

LIGHT VOTE DUE TO MAY PRIZE OFFER

Eagles Had Sympathetic Feeling With Peterson, Heavy Trip Voter and Go Up to Third Place.

Balloting in equal blocks was the order of the travel contestants in the last two days of voting. With one or two exceptions the candidates in nearest competition to each other cast about the same number, this varying from one to six thousand votes.

Peterson of the Trip Contestants was the heavy voter, he putting in more than sixteen thousand. The big block of ballots won him second place but he weakened his opportunity to win one of the prizes on May 27th just that much.

Want May Prizes.
The desire to get one of the vote increase prizes was the reason that kept many of the candidates from voting heavily yesterday. The totals of contestants today will be deducted from that gained by the voting on Saturday May 27th, and the two shown to have made the greatest vote increase will get the two mercantile orders for $35 and $15.

Goas Gains.
The final lineup after the count yesterday evening showed that McGhee had held his lead over Goas by only a few hundred votes although the latter had come up the line a point or two. Mrs. Lewis added to her total enough to give her a clear hundred thousand lead over any other candidate. Other contestants above the trip line maintained their former standing.

Shift Below Line.
Below the line Miss Burlem and Miss Fetter shifted places, the Maui girl taking the lead by securing the vintage position at eleventh place. Eagles Go Up.

The Eagles had a sympathy feeling with Peterson of the trippers, they having cast a vote almost identical with his. Second place was secured by the vote, the St. Elizabeth Memorial Church going down a point as a result. The rest of the organization candidates cast votes in varying proportions, down to the ones with eleven thousand to their credit.

The final closing date for the Evening Bulletin's double expansion year plans and trip contest has been definitely determined upon. The nominated will be printed for one time and then not again until they receive votes at some count. Subscribers sending in payments to the Bulletin must always mention the name of the individual trip contestant and the organization contestant, they wish to vote for, as all ballots are filled out before leaving office. You can hold back the ballots as long as you wish. Always state whether you want the votes cast or returned to you.

Every subscription payment made on or since March 28th entitles the payer to votes for a trip contestant. Every payment made on or since April 27th entitles the payer to votes for both a trip contestant and an organization contestant. Present receipts and votes will be issued.

Remember you get two sets of votes if you pay or have paid your subscription since April 27th; one for a trip candidate, and another for an organization candidate. An equal number of votes as given in the standing vote schedule are issued for both.

Keep your paper coupons for trip and organization candidates separate and do not roll the votes. Send them in, in envelopes with the name of the candidate and the number of votes they contain written on the front. This will help to make counts accurate and prompt, and permit you to estimate what correct total should be in advance.

The nomination coupon will not be run daily any longer but this does not mean that nominations can not still be sent in. Nominations of organization or trip candidates can be made at any time during the contest. From time to time the nomination coupon will appear in the paper, but if it does not appear at the time when you want the blank, write out the name, address, and occupation on a piece of paper and send it to us; it will count for the 5000 nomination votes as if on a regular coupon.

EVADING CHINESE SLAVERY— BECOMES ENGLISH SCHOLAR

Life Story of Former Slave Girl, Now Trip Contestant, Care-Taker of Children and Central Grammar School Student Wants Trip for Educational Purposes.

Stolen from her parents in China, when only eight years of age, and sold into slavery to be brought to Hawaii, was the tragic life beginning of Miss Nellie Wong, a young Chinese girl who is one of the Bulletin's smiling and hustling trip contestants. To see her now, as the happy caretaker of children or as the ambitious worker for an educational trip, or as a scholar in the Central Grammar School, makes the early part of her life seem like the imagination of some fevered brain. In the few years that she has had an opportunity to study she has made rapid progress, and today she speaks English with almost the fluency of one to whom it is the mother tongue.

Some years after being brought to Hawaii she escaped from the family who had purchased her. Of this part of her life she says very little, and that only a statement that they were very unkind to her and forced her to do all the arduous work of the household. With the true philosophy of one who tries to forget and forgive those by whom wronged, and with an appealing expression, she says: "The shadows of my life I want to pass quickly over, and think more of the pleasure lights that have been mine for the past few years."

She was fourteen years of age when she escaped from her life of drudgery and although knowing little English at the time, she managed to make known that she would like to be sent to the Girls' Industrial Home, where she would be protected from her former master. In her own words she says:

"It was the first real home I ever had. The teachers and matrons were very kind to me. They taught me to sew and many other useful accomplishments of American girls. "On leaving the home, the matron found me a home where I could go to school. In this new home I managed to do a little fancywork, and with the money I earned I paid my way through school. I have done well, I think, and especially now that I am in the home of Mr. Samuel G. Wilder. I have only care of the children, which I enjoy, and am allowed to continue my studies at the Central Grammar School, where I am in the eighth grade.

"My desire for one of the Bulletin's California trips is founded on educational longing. I have always wanted to increase my education by every dignified and honest means, and it seems that a trip to the Coast would not only be a wonderful pleasure, but also equal to many months of study. I am certain that eventually it would help me in school and other work.

"To every one who assists, I will try and show my deep appreciation of their kindness."

Miss Wong is an enthusiastic worker for the piano prize for the St. Elizabeth church of Palama, for which she is casting all her preference votes.

Tri-Weekly Counts
Tri-weekly counts are made on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The results of these counts are published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The weekly issue on Tuesdays contains the result of the Monday count. Ballots intended for these counts should be in the Bulletin office by 4 o'clock of the day the count is made.

NAVY OFFICERS TO PAY CUSTOMS DUTIES

Time-Honored Perquisite Cut Off by Secretary at One Fell Blow.

Naval officers coming from the Orient tell of a new regulation that has gone into force. Secretary of the Navy Meyer has cut off one of the time-honored perquisites that officers have enjoyed since the foundation of the government.

Naval officers have been allowed to bring large quantities of dutiable goods of all sorts into the country without paying duty. After Oriental and European cruises they have usually brought to their wives, daughters or sweethearts many presents which cost them a trifle as compared with what would be paid in America.

Officers on incoming warships are now ordered to have all dutiable goods over the $100 valuation allowed to all Americans ready for the inspection of the customs officers, and the Secretary of the Treasury has notified his agents not to examine any personal baggage other than that designated as dutiable by the officer in command of the ship.

2000 Bonus Votes

FOR FIFTEEN DAYS' WORK

STILL MORE PRIZES FOR VOTE-GETTERS

In order to induce extra effort during the next two weeks, fifty dollars are to be divided among the two trip contestants who receive the most votes

From Thursday Morning, May 11, to Saturday Evening, May 27th

The orders will be awarded in the following manner:

$35

Mercantile order will be given to the travel candidate who casts the most votes in the specified time.

$15

Mercantile order will go to the travel candidate who receives the second largest amount of votes during time of offer.

An Equal Opportunity for Every Entrant

The reward is for vote increase and not for some particular standing. This gives an equal chance to everyone to secure the mercantile orders.

Subtract Two Totals To Ascertain Vote Increase

The winners will be determined by taking the total of every candidate on Thursday morning, May 11, and subtracting it from the total secured by the count of ballots on Saturday evening, May 27.

The two candidates shown to have made the greatest vote increase will be the winners.

It does not matter what your present standing is. You have just as good a chance to win one of these orders as any other candidate. The reward is for the work you do in the next two weeks. Why not try and secure one of these orders, which will go a long way toward providing you with suitable traveling apparel for this summer's trip?

It means increased vote totals, and that much more chance of earning a California trip, even though you do not win one of the prizes.

There is no need to think it over. Start trying right away.

Remember! Votes cast, and not votes issued, decide the winners.

The mercantile orders will be on stores advertised in the Bulletin.

FREE FOUNTAIN PENS

In addition to these prizes, the Bulletin will give an Onoto fountain pen to every candidate for the first five new three-month daily subscriptions turned in during the time of the above offer.

The Onoto is a dandy pen. Ask any candidate who received one before.
